ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL

WAWATA 1968

We hope that in the future, as you leaf through this yearbook, it will bring back the memorable moments of the 1967-1968 school year.

The Wawata Staff

Kathy Riebe, Editor-in-chief

We the class of 1968 dedicate our yearbook to a man whose influence is felt by the entire school and community. Even though there are many students who do not come in direct contact with him, his efforts are felt by all. He has given up many of his own hours to help out with the extra curricular activities. He has given up his own time to help with our class songs. It is with these thoughts that we dedicate our Wawata to our Choir Director Mr. Robert Zar.

King Dan and Queen Holly

1968 Junior Prom

The theme of the 1967 Junior Prom was "Distant Shores". Couples danced to the music of "The Chessmen". The gym was decorated in oranges and yellows. An island with palm trees was in the center of the floor and a beautiful sunset shone on the dance floor.

The court consisted of Jim Eckman and Barbara Hershberger, Dave Brown and Helen Ruffcorn, Mike Hanson and JoAnne Moe, and Curt Somppi and Kay Johnson. Holly Detle and Dan Martinsen were chosen to reign over the 1967 Prom. The king and queen were crowned by Lynn Schelvan and Ryan Hmielewski, the 1966 prom king and queen. The coronation dance followed, led by Holly and Dan.

May this night stand out from all the rest
 And bring to mind those moments blest
 When breathless you stood by your partner's side
 With hands clasped tight in mutual pride.
 Then dance away to your favorite song,
 With gaiety and laughter the whole night long.
 As you make your wish on a morning star
 And parted with friends from near and far.
 Distant Shores call you-with the blessing of heaven
 And a fond farewell to the Class of '67

1967 Homecoming

The 1967 Homecoming king and queen

The Student Council is in charge of Homecoming each fall. This year the best ever witnessed by the fans of the "Oredockers".

The day began with the crowning of the king and queen, at the Pep Assembly. Next came the parade with many clever floats entered in competition.

Everyone was in high spirits for the game after attending the afternoon's activities.

To top off the days events the football team played a great game and beat Bessemer.

A homecoming dance was held after the game to end a perfect day.

"Cupid's Hideaway"

1968 Sweet Hearts Ball Court

Soft lights, lilting music, handsome couples in formal attire and romantic symbols of cupids and hearts were the setting for this year's Sweetheart's Ball which was held at the Elk's Country Club on February 17.

Hanging from the dimly-lighted ceiling was a revolving mobile of heart shape from which red cupids and hearts were suspended. In the center against the far wall was the throne, covered with pink satin set in a magnificent red satin heart.

The 108 couples attending danced to the music of the Emotionals from Duluth. Between dances the couples returned to their tables which were decorated in red, white, and pink. In the center of the tables were red and pink satin hearts covered with artificial flowers and cupids set in the middle of them. In front of each couple's place was a small white tree with three branches from which three red hearts hung with the name of the couple on them.

The highlight of the evening was the coronation. The court which consisted of Susan Bailey and John Dusenbery, Frances Austin and Jim Chudy, Diane Iverson and Mark Yellish, Laurie Josephson and Bob Hochstafl, and Linda Skinnies and Carl Vilmann, was introduced and took their places beside the throne. Then the 1968 Sweet heart's Ball king and queen were announced. Laurie and Bob were chosen to reign over this year's ball. They were crowned by Miss Mable O'Brien and John Chingo. The crownbearers were Ronny and Penny Heagy. After the coronation the coronation dance began, led by the king and queen.

Chaperoning the dance were Mr. and Mrs. James Junker, John Chingo, Eldon Holm, Allen Cate, Peter Poppin, Mrs. Astrid Berthiaume and Miss Mable O'Brien Sub Deb advisor.

Cupid's Hideaway

A wintry night, a glowing moon,
Happy hearts and a romantic tune;
Sweethearts dancing amidst flowers
gay,
All this was ours at Cupid's Hideaway.

A friendly greeting, a lover's smile,
To warm our hearts for many a mile;
The touch of a hand, sweet words to say,
Fond memories to cherish from Cupid's Hideaway.

Music, the trademark of the Ashland High School Senior Choir. One hundred plus voices performing as a choir, in glee clubs, in small ensembles, madrigal and as soloists, spanning the gamut of musical literature from folk to classic, from novelty to the deeply religious. Ever popular, ever timely, the universal gift presented by Ashland Choral musicians, music.

"Gold Madrigal"

ORGANIZATIONS

A.F.S. Club

AFS is an organization promoting world friendship and understanding on an individual basis. By getting to know students from other countries who come to Ashland to live and study we become familiar with countries and cultures different from our own. In the same way, Ashland students have an opportunity to go abroad. This year AFS student, Nguyen Van Hoan, is from Da Nang, Viet Nam. Sue Bailey has just returned from a year in New Zealand. The ambitious members of the AFS Club each year earn about $1050 to support this program at Ashland High School.

Susan Bailey has brought back many of her experiences from her 12 month stay in New Zealand. She is happy to be back, but misses her New Zealand family, the Shaws. The above picture shows Susan and her "sister" Robin with their dates at their end of term formal. The side picture shows Sue, Robin, and friends enjoying a day sailing before Sue returned home.

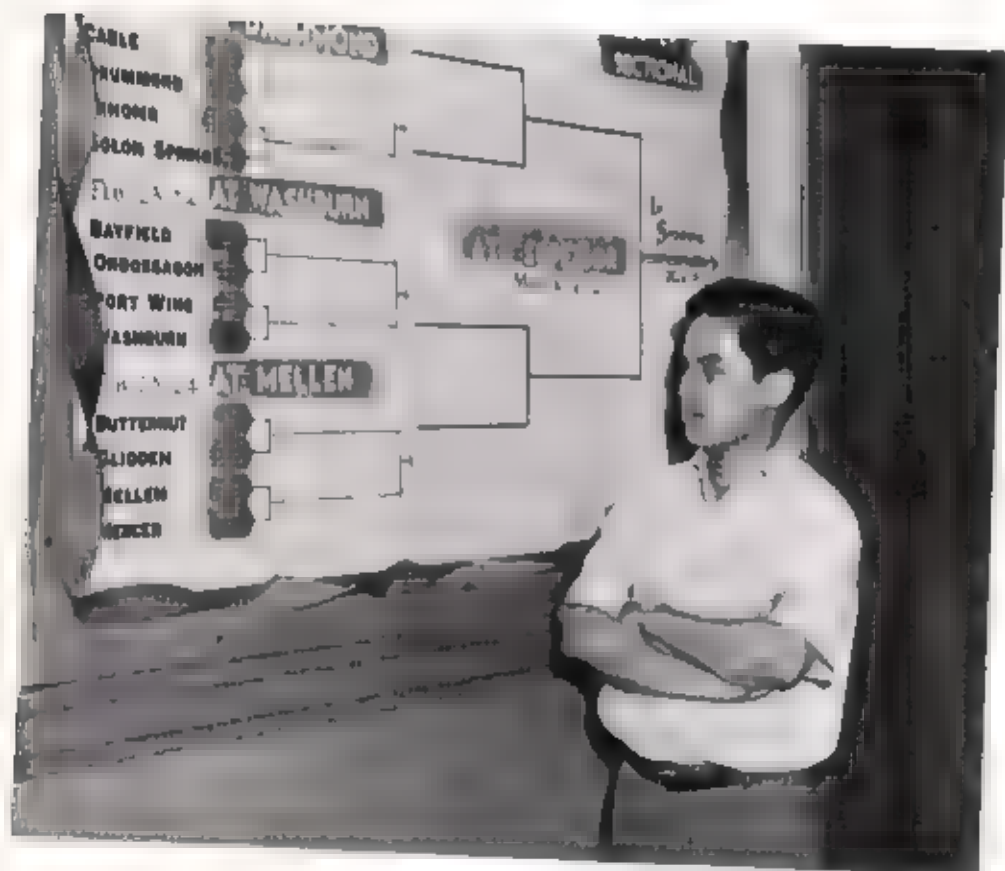

To all my dear Ashlanders,

There is nothing better than thinking of this year. The year provides more fun to enjoy, more opportunities to learn and more problems to cope with than I am deserved to. A nice family, nice teachers, and nice friends, all make up a nice and steady institution in my mind.

It is an abstract thing to describe my feeling of being in Ashland, because it is not created by the generosity of people, neither their luxurious wealth; but by the smile on their lips, by the sweet phrases to welcome that boy as a next son of their little society; and most of all by snow in January. On a certain January night, I suddenly fall in love with white snow while thinking of the Lunar new year eve at home. A far-away life finds its joy during that moment. As a wanderer, for some strange reason, I have chosen Ashland as first station, and Ashland High School as spiritual repose, and really find out that I cannot leave, for, "Ashland is poor but anywhere I come, I am welcome."

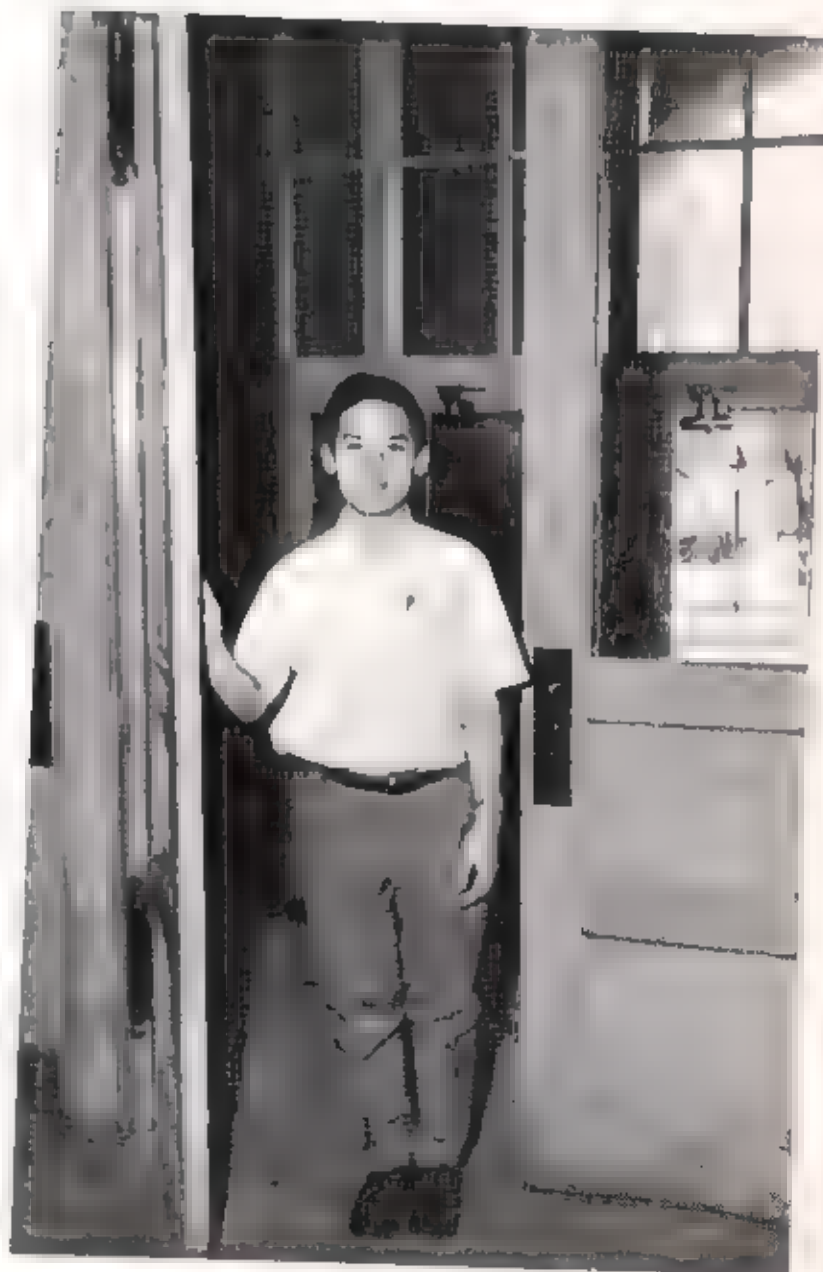

With my love,

Hoan

In the above picture, Hoan is looking over the basketball tournament schedule in which Ashland took first place.

Jr. & Sr. High Student Councils

The Student Council, made up of representatives from each homeroom, is one of the most important organizations of the school. The main purpose of this organization is to suggest and help carry out ways of improving our school. This year, besides sponsoring the annual homecoming festivities, the council sponsored a Christmas dance, sponsored a dress-up day and convocations. Officers for the 1967-68 year are: President, Randy Spangle; Vice President, Dick Pufall; Secretary, JoAnn Moe; Treasurer, Laurie Josephson. The new council advisor is Mr. Urbaniak.

National Honor Society

The purpose of this chapter of the National Honor Society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Ashland High School. This year there are senior members, and probationary members, composed of Juniors. The National Honor Society worked very hard this year to earn money to buy a bulletin board for the school which will give the names of the members of the society. Officers are: Pres., Don Wickman, V. Pres., Sandy Fossum, Sec., Colleen Kehoe, Treas., Diane Iverson, Reporter, Sharon Armstrong, and Advisor Mrs. Armstrong.

Sub Debs

The Sub Debs have been very active this year. Their main project for the year was the Sweetheart's Ball, which was held at the Elks Club on Feb. 17. At Christmas time they held their annual banquet out at the Marine Club. They also presented a gift basket to a deserving family. The Sub Deb membership is composed of 50 Senior and Junior girls. Officers are: President, Diane Iverson; Vice President, Barb Hershberger; Secretary, Barb Heagy; Treasurer, Sandra Fossum; Club Advisor, Miss O'Brien.

The Tri Luci Club of Ashland High School stands for three lights: Learning, Leadership, and Loyalty. The Tri Luci can be considered a service club, and in the future hope to show members of our Club the way toward becoming better citizens. We sponsor social functions and try to promote leadership among students of Ashland High School. The Tri Luci is composed of girls of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. It's membership numbers 36 at the present time.

Purple & Gold Staff

The P & G Staff publishes the Ashland High School paper, the Purple and Gold. The bi-weekly paper is published 16-18 times throughout each school year, including a special issue on April Fool's Day called the Pink and Green. The P & G Staff also writes for the Ashland Daily Press and for the Duluth News Tribune. School papers are exchanged with other high schools throughout the state. Members of the staff are Editor-in-Chief Rachel Hardt, Feature Editor Connie Sorenson, Club Editor Mary Dufek, Sports Editor Don Hudson, Exchange Editor Valerie Nordin, Circulation Manager Judy Ronning, and Advisor Miss Gorr. News reporters are Carol Bourgeois, Billie Little, Sharon Armstrong, Kay Wooland, and Judy Wilhelm.

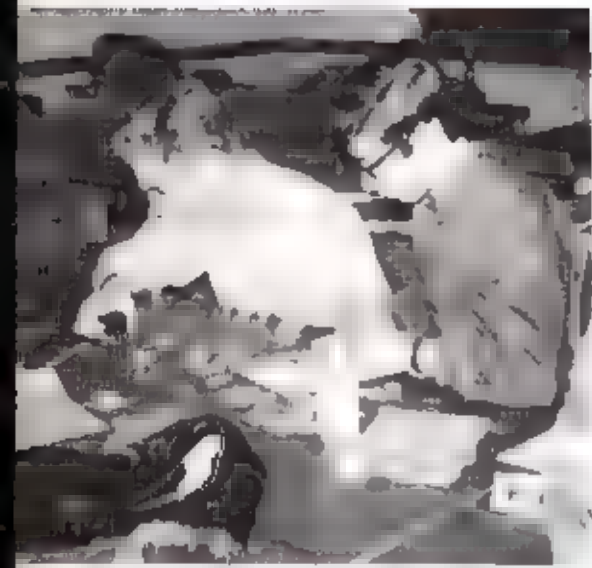

The Junior Historical Society is a club consisting of eighth grade students. Each year the club raises money to eake a trip to a place of historical significance around the area.

Hard at work?

Frustration sets in.

Do you believe it?

Joan Peacy 68-69 Editor.

Two heads are better than one.

Throughout this year, we, the Wawata Staff, have worked very hard to make this book a success. We sincerely hope that looking through the pages of this Wawata will bring back happy memories of the school year of 1967-68. We would like to thank Mr. Luoma for all the helpful advice and hard work he has so willingly contributed to the Wawata. The Wawata Staff members are: Kathy Riebe, Editor-in-Chief, Anna Teigen, Asst. Editor, Don Wickman, Photographer, Sue Mateofsky, Kay Johnson, John Dusenberry, Bob King, Sandy Fossum, Pat Erickson, Mary Lou Hassel, Mike Hanson, Linda Brasher, Diane Iverson, Debbie Vacha, John Molis, Joan Peacy, 1968-69 Editor, Mr. Luoma, Advisor.

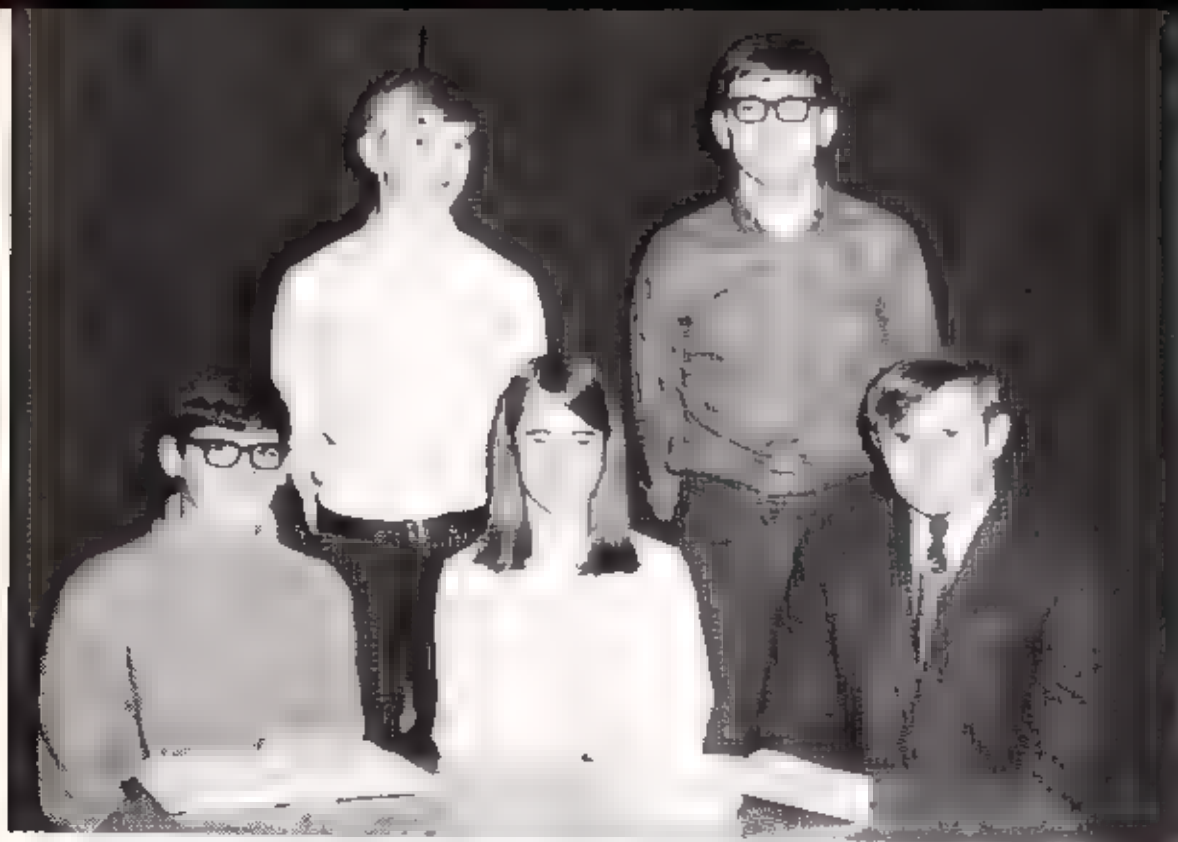

Deep Concentration.

Give,
 What a year. Could you ever forget it or Brian Hildner? In history class was a riot. What a in the news today? What year Wawaters are going to be really fantastic! I can see it all now. I was for working at graduation, but kept place it will be us -
 Thank God.
 Have a great
 summer. Be good.

For Jill
the only one that could make me seriously write in one of these books.

I hate saying good bye when I don't mean it. To you, Jill a good bye would not be appropriate, anyway, even if this were the time for us to die I will not say good bye.

We know so much about each other, and feel so much, have so much, yet need so much. MORE

Our memories are our own. No one else would ever understand and my poor descriptions would never do. The memory of you is never distinct but always blends into the future.
I'm trying to say I'll never be without you,
at least in my mind.

Thank God for you, Jill! You certainly are a wonder that I won't ever fully understand.
Thank you Jill for being. (will they ever straighten) Love you Jim. (us out Jill?)

from 'The Arrangement' Love you Jim. 149
"And I have to take a chance. If you do straighten me out, it may kill me."

per,
 to the student
 id in U.S. History class without your help I would have failed many a time in many ways. Have fun
 this summer, try to have the boys alone. Hope to see you this summer.

fell,

You are probably the best thing in this whole school.
And I really mean it. You are the only person that seems to understand and the talks we have had have been beautiful. You have been a lot of fun. Band was really fun and I don't in truth miss it. So think about me when you are the only one of the old bunch left. I have so much to say but I wouldn't want to be a pig and use up a whole sheet of paper. Well if you ever want to get another test paper or break into the school again just look me up. And if all I just might look you up this summer so don't be surprised.
Well best of luck to the starkest,

i don't know ^{how} you escaped but somewhere
out there a funny farm has one less patient!

It's really has been a year to remember!
With all the funny, sad and boring times we had to endure I think we came out ahead. I'd like to mention all the funny things we did this year but I get a headache when I think about them. Ever since some kid named Ewing came to town (I think he got kicked out of New Jersey) things really got funny!
Boy he sure wrecked our good conduct record.
Next year will be big seniors and I suppose I'll have to put up with you again but things could be worse. Seriously, I don't think a senior's experience has had as memorable year as I have had and I hope it carries through next year. Don't forget all the good advice we given you this year and just stay like you are if that's possible. All I could only write as much as I talk. How's wishing you everything

John,

Moving was probably the most frightening experience I've ever been through. But the business didn't last long. Last year was really very good, and I must admit that I probably doubled or tripled my happy memories since I met Tom and you! Remember all the fun we had walking in the park, and later watching Tom fall in the lake.

1st. Basketball Season. It was really thrilling to play for 171 S. this year, and although we didn't quite make it that year, we came close than I ever would have in N.J.; because it was nice sitting by you when you were in such a great mood. But then, you are usually in a pretty wonderful mood and change what you are!

I never seem to be able to think of all I want to say when I'm writing so maybe I'd better stop before I start not making sense. (See - there I go!) Have a wonderful summer and be careful, because your friendship means an awful lot to me. See ya next year when we're all

By the way, thanks for the long talks we three have had together. This year has been the first that I've ever been able to really talk problems out with my friends.

It seems great
having someone you know
to write in their yearbook.
I just hate all those other stereotype things
you have to say to others.
It seems great to get out of school but then you think of certain things and certain people
and you have to hesitate about being happy. You'll be at your cabin and I'll be in Florida and some awfully special people will be up here. I'm really going to miss Woody and I know you feel the same and probably more about Jim. I'm really kind of scared in a way. I'm going to do a lot of letter writing so you better reciprocate.
You never know what things I'll be doing or people I'll be meeting but I doubt if anything will change. At least with your Mom going to Northland, you'll be able to stay up there longer with Jim. I really enjoy you. Huh, you and Jim could go to some of Woody's beach parties and kind of send me a report on the ole turkey.
You'll like the parties but the kids will disappoint you unless they let you in their clique. You can always throw sand in the fire with Jim though and there is a real long beach that you can have a race down.
With all of my descriptions, I'm making myself sad. But --- head up high and Florida a Bust! I'll be sending you up a lot of stupid little things.
But knowing how sentimental you are you'll like them as much as I will.
I've to go before I run out of room but just one more thing to say.
